

Accommodating Religious Observance Academic Years 21-22 and 22-23

As a secular unaffiliated institution, Butler University is proud to welcome people of all faith and philosophical orientations to our campus communities. We hope there can be flexibility and understanding for religious practice in both curricular and extra-curricular planning.

Religious Holiday Accommodation Policy

Butler University accommodates students' religious practice with regard to class assignments when requests are made in a timely manner.

Butler University recommends that each class should have a syllabus that provides a schedule of activities for the class. It is the student's responsibility to inform instructors of course conflicts resulting from religious observations at least two weeks in advance of the observance, so that accommodations can be made. Requests must be made in writing, and the student should include a proposed alternative due date, examination date, or make-up outline.

The professor should review the request and if the student's proposed suggestion is acceptable, he/she should notify the student of the agreement. Any solution that is mutually agreeable to both student and faculty member is acceptable.

If accommodations cannot be agreed upon, the instructor and students should seek the advice of the associate dean in the appropriate college. No bias or prejudicial effects will result to students because they have made use of these provisions.

We encourage faculty to provide this policy within their syllabi so students are made aware that it is their responsibility to arrange accommodations for missing class for religious observance with faculty in advance.

Syllabi Content If faculty do not wish to print the entire policy in their syllabi, below is a succinct way to provide the same basic content and point people to the full policy online:

Students have the ability to get academic accommodations if observation of religious practices poses a conflict. It is the student's responsibility to be in communication with the faculty member at least two weeks prior to the need for the accommodation. Holy Days

We also encourage faculty and staff to avoid scheduling exams, field trips, or activities that would be hard to make up on the major holy days observed and celebrated by our campus communities provided below. These dates are also important to avoid for campus events, alumni events, or other programs.

There are many other important holy dates and observances than provided below. The list below reflects the most significant holidays for the faith communities present on Butler's campus. For a much more comprehensive list of religious holidays, the CFV website has linked to the faith calendar here

*Indicates the holiday begins at sundown

† Indicates the holiday date may vary by a day or two; dates are finalized leading up to the holiday. For this reason, sometimes it may be difficult for students to utilize the above policy ~~and~~ in advance as final observance decisions are made by faith leaders sometimes within 10 days of the holiday.
